

Your membership . . .

If you normally pay your membership fees through your primary District Group, please DO NOT USE THIS FORM.

Completing the membership form with the necessary information enables us to maintain an accurate membership list which is a requirement noted in the Incorporation Act.

- Before sending your details to the membership officer, we urge you to read the following:
 - A separate form should be used for each membership category.
 - We are offering membership for multiple years (up to 3).
 - Lone members should use this form.
 - We are requesting payment method other than credit card if practical.
 - Although you may be a member of more than one affiliated district group, when completing the membership form – please list only the name of your 'primary' group.
 - Please complete all sections of the form.
 - First & last names of all adult members, included in the family membership, should be listed. Other dependants may be listed.
 - Organisation membership is for any legal entity that is not a person.
- If paying by E.F.T.
 - Your name MUST be included in the transaction details, and membership number if possible (Your membership number is noted on the outside of the newsletter mailing envelope.)
 - We urge you to keep a copy of your EFT transactions for your own records.

Either post the membership form to the address noted on the membership renewal form or email your details to membership@apsvic.org.au.

- Remember to tick:
 - Membership category
 - Indicate if you belong to an Affiliated District Group, otherwise you will be listed as a Lone Member
 - Payment method

Explanations of membership categories as well as the role, responsibilities and benefits of APS Vic membership are detailed in the By-laws which can be found in the member's area of our website www.apsvic.org.au.

Membership benefits include receipt of the Society's newsletter Growing Australian which is distributed in March, June, September and December.

Australian Plants magazine

APS Vic members can subscribe to the ANPSA national magazine Australian Plants (4 editions per annum) for $15. The magazine will be included in the mailing of Growing Australian.

Any questions regarding renewal may be directed to the Membership Officer via the contact details on the reverse of this form.
